

Business Law

Business Law

---

At Lexland Lawyers our services are aimed both at companies already established, such as those that aren't and are in the process of incorporation. Over the recent years, the complexity of the operations related to commerce has grown and this, together with the specific legislation for certain sectors, makes the Department of Commercial Law one of the most vital, offering commercial advice to companies of different backgrounds.

---

These are some of the services we provide in the area of Commercial Law:

- Company Incorporations

Before setting up a company, we must analyse the defined business plan to assess what is the best way to set up i.e. private limited company, limited partnership etc., Each project is different and it is vital to know the root of each one in order to be able to provide professional advice. In Lexland we have experts in commercial law who advise and guide our clients towards the best option for each particular project, as well as on mergers and acquisitions and corporate transactions.

- Franchising

Our experts in franchising advise both franchisees and franchisors. We specialize in providing legal defence to protect the rights of our clients, advising on the best way to proceed in this type of business expansion strategy.

- Business consulting

We offer comprehensive advice for your company owing to the variety of disciplines that our experts dominate. We provide accounting, tax, labour and legal solutions for your company.

- Contracts: drafting or actions against breach of contract
- Debts and insolvency

To learn more about this service, please visit our section on Insolvency Law

- E-commerce

You can find more information on this particular service by visiting the New Technologies Law page.

Our team of experts also advises on:

- Debt collection
- International trade
- Commercial litigation
- Investment
- Equity securities, purchases

