Tax Law

Lexland tax department offers bespoke advisory services both on Spanish and international tax to private clients, Spanish & multinational corporations on any matter related to tax authorities at all levels (State, regional and local). We address issues related to wealth management and strive to optimize your yields and income, whilst managing your taxes in a manner that allows you to obtain the maximum benefit.

Below we would like to present some of the ways we manage in our tax department:

- Personal Income Tax

Among our services, we review the Personal Income Tax (PIT), always taking into account the latest fiscal changes, as well as your personal and family circumstances, such as, change of residence, alimony and / or compensatory, acquisition of property or any kind of incapacity, which sometimes aren't reflected in the drafted tax account.

- Inheritance and gift taxes, capital gains

At Lexland we care about our customers' needs and interests and want to make sure that they are charged as little tax as possible when it comes to receiving inheritance or donation. We also take into account how these procedures can affect their closest relatives whether or not they are a resident in Spain or not.

- International taxation for individuals.

At Lexland we advise EU and non-EU clients on Spanish and international tax matters and we accompany them in their international investments, providing thorough tax advice. Our experts also carry out ongoing and in-depth monitoring of all EU legislative initiatives and take into account any agreements and double taxation treaties signed by Spain with different countries that may have a bearing on our clients.

- Administrative litigation and appeals

Our team specializes in the management of all claims against the Tax Authorities either at first instance or at the appeal stage. Since this is one of our most requested services, our professionals possess extensive experience in such matters.

- Tax procedures

Our experts always ensure that your and your company's interests are taken into account, as well as any procedure or disputes related to the Tax Administration.

- Tax on capital transfers and uncertified legal documents

Our team of experts will present and process this tax for our clients in the case of paid transmissions of all types of assets and rights that make up their heritage.

A tax lawyer can also advise on:

- International Transactions
