

Internships

Internships

If you have an excellent academic background, are capable of working to a high quality in several languages and seek to achieve a strong and fruitful experience in the legal field, Lexland Lawyers could be the place for you. Our Internship Scheme is aimed at undergraduates and recent graduates who want to gain firsthand experience of the legal world!

What do we expect from you?

- To be indispensable - Make it so your Department leader misses your presence when you are not there. To be the person that understands in full detail all the matters they're responsible for.
- To be intuitive and creative - Lexland Lawyers looks for employees that know how to put their knowledge into actions, and are able to solve problems creatively.
- To be proactive - To be always thinking a step further and go above the standard. To have the ability to make decisions.
- To work in a team - Lexland Lawyers searches for professionals who can take into account the work of others and know how to present their own ideas without forcing them upon others.
- To be flexible and multi-capable - Showing an interest in further responsibilities and learning how to use new technologies.

Interns are taken on in our Administrative Department, Legal Department, Financial Department, and Marketing Department year round. If you're interested in applying please use the form below, expressing your interest to be considered for our next intake, and specifying which department you'd like to be considered for.
