

International Law

International Law

International Law is undoubtedly one of our principal specialties, something that differentiates us from other professional firms on the coast. In addition to having a team of multilingual lawyers, our lawyers are familiar with the legislature in other countries such as the UK and the States, making them more than apt to provide comprehensive advice.

These are some of the services that we provide in international law department:

International Family Law:

- Adoption
- Marriage
- Divorce
- Child custody
- Inheritance

International Trade:

- International trade law
- Sales
- Defaults and debt collection
- International Financial Advisors
- International Banking Law

International Taxation

International Retirement